Foreword

Last year we reported on the actions being taken in response to a review of our scrutiny arrangements by Audit Wales. We are continuing to refine our scrutiny arrangements and are building on the steps that have been taken in response to the review's recommendations. It is an ongoing journey, and I and my co-chairs and vice-chairs, have worked together through the Scrutiny Forum to ensure that we identify any opportunities to improve our arrangements in order to maximise the value of scrutiny's contribution to driving improvement in services for the people of Gwynedd.

All members, Cabinet Members, Heads of Department and residents of Gwynedd were given the opportunity to propose potential items to be scrutinised during 2024/25. Two suggestions of possible matters to be scrutinised were received from the residents of Gwynedd.

The Education and Economy Scrutiny Committee recognised the need to conduct a scrutiny investigation into safeguarding arrangements in schools. The Communities Scrutiny Committee undertook pre-decision scrutiny on the proposal to introduce an Article 4 Direction to manage the change of use of second homes and holiday lets before the Cabinet approved its implementation. The Care Scrutiny Committee invited external partners on three occasions. A meeting was held to scrutinise the social housing field only, and representatives from the housing associations were invited; external auditors came to report on their work in the adults field; and representatives from the Health Board were invited to discuss health issues.

This report provides a summary of the scrutiny work carried out during the year, highlighting the impact of the scrutiny.

Working together is paramount to achieving and driving service improvement. I appreciate the contribution of my fellow chairs and vice-chairs, the scrutiny members, cabinet members, officers and everyone who has contributed to the scrutiny work during the year. I cannot over-emphasise that working together constructively is essential to ensure the success of scrutiny.

Scrutiny Workshops

Workshops to produce a draft work programme for 2024/25 for each Scrutiny Committee were held in April 2024.

The opportunity was taken to remind members of the purpose of scrutiny in Gwynedd, namely:

CONTRIBUTE TO DRIVING IMPROVEMENT IN SERVICES FOR THE PEOPLE OF GWYNEDD

This is done constructively by:

- Investigating concerns regarding the quality of our services
- Acting as a Critical Friend, ensuring that appropriate attention is given to the citizen's voice
- Identifying good practice and weaknesses
- Holding the Cabinet and its members to account
- Reviewing or scrutinising decisions or actions that are not the responsibility of the Cabinet

It was highlighted that the Well-being of Future Generations Act 2015 requires councils to consider the impact of doing something now and the long-term effect for the future. It was elaborated that scrutiny does this by working in partnership, making effective use of time in committees, by questioning and making achievable recommendations.

The importance of the impact of scrutiny and the need to make SMART recommendations were emphasized.

Specific Measurable
Achievable
Relevant
Time bound

The different types of scrutiny – reactive and proactive – were detailed:

REACTIVE Hold to Account	PROACTIVE Support Improvement
Consult and make recommendations through: • Committees; • Investigations; • Task and Finish Groups.	• Monitoring • Challenging • Seek assurance for: ➤ performance; ➤ decisions to come; ➤ decisions made; ➤ policies.

The practical changes to scrutiny arrangements were outlined following the Audit Wales review of scrutiny efficiency and the 'Scrutiny Committees Best Practice' training conducted by external trainers in March 2024.

Potential items for scrutiny during the year were considered. The committee members had received a list of possible items for the areas of work for which the individual committees are responsible, in advance. Members were asked to respond to an on-line question ahead of the workshop – What are your 5 main priorities? – keeping in mind the following factors:

- ❖ Does the matter affect a large proportion of the population?
- ❖ Can scrutiny make a difference / have an influence? (people / service / performance)
- ❖ Is it timely to scrutinise the matter?
- ❖ Is the matter a priority for the Council?
- ❖ Are we clear about what we are trying to improve?

The top items from the responses to the question were noted. The members were given an opportunity to discuss:

Do you agree with the 5 main priorities?

What else from the list should be scrutinised during 2024/25?

Open discussions were held and an initial version of the draft work programme was produced. The aim was to prioritise a maximum of three items per meeting to ensure that the items were addressed properly. Following the discussions, the relevant Heads of Department and Cabinet Members joined. They were given the opportunity to identify any issues that needed consideration in the context of the matters prioritised and in terms of the timing of the scrutiny.

Each committee had a draft work programme formed at the end of the workshops.

Scrutiny Forum

The Scrutiny Forum meets regularly to take an overview of all the Council's scrutiny work, with the members (Chairs and Vice-Chairs of the Scrutiny Committees) challenging each other to ensure that the right issues are prioritised.

A meeting of the Forum with the 2023/24 chairs and vice-chairs was held on 7 May 2024. The membership at the time was:

SCRUTINY COMMITTEE	CHAIR	VICE-CHAIR
Education and Economy	Cllr Elwyn Jones	Vacant Seat
Communities	Cllr Elin Hywel	Cllr Annwen Hughes
Care	Cllr Beth Lawton	Cllr Linda Ann Jones

The members considered the draft scrutiny forward programme before the individual scrutiny committees adopted their work programme. Forum members were given the opportunity to express their views on the proposed changes to the committees' practical operating arrangements in 2024/25. What was planned to be included in the 2023/24 annual report was presented, and members were asked for suggestions on its content.

At the first meeting of the Forum on 25 October 2024 with the new membership, the role of the Scrutiny Forum was clarified, namely to:

- Advise on PRIORITISING scrutiny items (the majority being formal scrutiny with a small number of investigations) and challenge the basis on which items have been identified for scrutiny.
- Identify the most effective scrutiny method within the resources available (formal scrutiny / investigation)
- Identify items that are purely for information, seeking to avoid using scrutiny arrangements to fulfil the information-sharing role.
- Assess the contributions of the individual committees and assess the IMPACT of the scrutiny work and review our scrutiny arrangements continuously.

An overview of the forward scrutiny programme was given to ensure that the right matters had been prioritised. Consideration was also given to the Cabinet forward programme, and whether there were any further issues that should be scrutinised before the Cabinet made a decision.

The forum discussed developments in the area of scrutiny, the procedure for scrutiny chairs to receive an invitation to attend a Cabinet meeting when scrutiny committees have pre-scrutinised an item, the arrangements for tracking decisions/recommendations and the arrangements for reporting on performance to the scrutiny committees rather than reporting to Cabinet meetings.

A meeting of the Forum was held on 29 January 2025, consideration was given to the latest versions of the scrutiny forward programme and the Cabinet forward programme. The Forum considered the draft brief of the Safeguarding Arrangements in Schools Scrutiny Investigation. Resources were prioritised to enable the Education and Economy Scrutiny Committee to establish a group of committee members to undertake the work. More information about the scrutiny investigation on page 20 of the annual report.

A document was presented which raised awareness among Scrutiny Forum members about the scrutiny arrangements of the North Wales Corporate Joint Committee (CJC), for consideration, before the Full Council at its meeting on 6 March 2025 approved the establishment of a Joint Overview and Scrutiny Committee for the North Wales CJC which will have representation from the 6 North Wales councils.

At the Forum's final meeting for the year, the members reflected on the developments to the scrutiny arrangements during 2024/25. What was planned to be included in the 2024/25 annual report was presented, and members were asked for suggestions on its content. Focus was given to the arrangements for producing the 2025/26 scrutiny work programme. Resources were approved to hold a Task and Finish Group – Draft Education Language Policy, on the basis that there were sufficient resources to hold a single meeting of the task group.

Councillor Cai Larsen was elected Chair of the investigation at the first meeting.

A series of four meetings were held at the start of the investigation to understand legal requirements and consider good practice in the field of safeguarding in schools.

The key questions addressed were:

- ❖ What are the requirements including guidance in circulars and guidance on 'safeguarding requirements' in schools?
- ❖ What are the safeguarding arrangements for schools in Gwynedd?
- ❖ How does the collaboration between schools/the Education Department and the Children's Department work?
- ❖ What are the findings/views of Estyn (the regulators in the field) on arrangements in Gwynedd schools?
- ❖ Are there examples of good practice nationally, and what would top-quality safeguarding arrangements look like in schools? (i.e. how good arrangements can be ensured)
- ❖ What do the schools say about their safeguarding arrangements and the support from the authority - are there specific themes?

We will report further on the investigation's work in the next annual report after submitting the draft report of the scrutiny investigation to the Education and Economy Scrutiny Committee.

Developments in 2024–25

In the 2023/24 annual report, we noted the intention to introduce changes to our practical arrangements during 2024/25 following a review of our arrangements by Audit Wales and the 'Scrutiny Committees Best Practice' training delivered by external trainers.

The Scrutiny Forum and scrutiny officers worked together to develop practical changes to our scrutiny arrangements to make more effective use of time at scrutiny committee meetings.

Here are details of the different elements that together attempt to further strengthen our arrangements with the aim of ensuring effective scrutiny.

INFORMAL MEETINGS

TO IMPROVE THE FOCUS AND IMPACT OF THE INFORMAL MEETINGS – TRIAL ONLINE, HOUR-LONG MEETINGS, APPROXIMATELY 5 WEEKS BEFORE THE NEXT MEETING.

Focus on questions

- An opportunity to refine the questions submitted to the workshops.
- The questions will form the basis of the report to the committee.
- New scrutiny report template to support this.
- Local questions – An opportunity to ask if there are local issues, which, when combined, raise a theme and a strategic question to be added as a question to be answered in the report.

Assessment of the Performance / Impact of Scrutiny

- To assess the impact of scrutiny, scoring every item on the dart board.
- Self-evaluate the committee's operation and learn as we go along.

Report back

- Representatives at performance challenge meetings/scrutiny groups/forums/boards to report back.

BRIEFING MEETINGS

PRE-COMMITTEE BRIEFINGS TO BEGIN AT 10 O'CLOCK AND FOCUS ON THE QUESTIONING STRATEGY

Questioning Strategy

- Sufficient time to go through the questioning strategy item-by-item and identify who is asking what.
- Check if all the different elements that need scrutiny have been identified.
- An opportunity to ask if there are local issues, which, when combined, raise a theme and a strategic question to ask in committee.

COMMITTEE

INSIGHTFUL QUESTIONING BEFORE REACHING A DECISION ON WHETHER THE COMMITTEE IS SATISFIED OR WHETHER IT NEEDS TO MAKE SMART RECOMMENDATIONS

Presentations

- Establish a procedure whereby a Cabinet Member or Head of Department has ONLY 5 MINUTES to present an item at the Committee (as everyone has prepared and read in advance).
- No passing of the baton to officers afterwards, officers to answer questions only.
- The Chair to open the discussion i.e. move on to questions following 5 minutes.

Focus item-by-item

- The briefing meetings will enable the committee to focus on questions.
- Members should not give opinions, comments or repeat – a role for individual Members and the Chair.
- Try to allocate specific time for an item and adhere to that.

Recommendations

- Decide if comfortable with the direction or if a specific recommendation is needed.

Tracking Arrangements

One of the recommendations arising from Audit Wales's review into the efficiency of our scrutiny arrangements was:

"The process of reporting on the decisions of scrutiny committees should be strengthened and a formal tracking arrangement should be adopted, in order to get the best value for money and highlight publicly the contribution of the scrutiny system to the Council's governance arrangements."

Informal arrangements to track scrutiny recommendations already existed. The Scrutiny Forum considered establishing a formal tracking procedure and concluded that the information should be shared with the scrutiny members every 6 months. An update on decisions/recommendations since May 2022 was shared with the members in December 2024.

See below for an example of the impact of scrutiny resulting from the tracking work:

"In June 2024, I submitted a report to the Care Scrutiny Committee to share the risk that Cyngor Gwynedd faces in relation to our Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards (DoLS) situation.

There was an unanimous decision that the Members were not willing to accept the risk to the Council and a request was made to re-examine the situation and find a solution.

I am pleased to report that a successful bid has been submitted to employ 2 Best Interest Assessors on a permanent basis. These roles, along with the annual grant from the Welsh Government, will help us tackle the waiting list and ensure that the risks to the Council are significantly reduced.

I would like to thank the Members for their support and I will be happy to provide a further update once the additional posts have had an impact."

Challenging Performance

Performance challenge meetings are held every other month (except for April and August), in accordance with the Council departments' areas of work.

In 2024/25, representatives of the scrutiny committees were invited to two meetings, to:

- ❖ Have a taste of what grasp the individual departments have of performance matters.
- ❖ Identify, if required, any performance issues that may merit being addressed by a formal scrutiny committee in due course.

The members who attended performance challenge meetings during 2024/25 were:

Education	Economy	Corporate Services and Legal	Finance
Beth Lawton Gwynfor Owen reserve Jina Gwyrfai	Iwan Huws Dewi Owen reserve Jina Gwyrfai	Cai Larsen Huw Rowlands	Cai Larsen Beth Lawton

Environment	Highways, Engineering and YGC
Llio Elenid Owen (until 9 December 2024) Rhys Tudur (until 5 December 2024)	Stephen Churchman a Rob Triggs reserve - Arwyn Roberts

Adults, Health and Well-being	Children and Supporting Families	Housing and Property
Meryl Roberts Einir Wyn Williams	Gwynfor Owen Einir Wyn Williams	Menna Baines Dewi Jones (until 9 December 2024)

The arrangements will change in 2025/26 with the system of scrutiny representatives attending performance challenge meetings coming to an end. Performance reports will be submitted for public scrutiny twice-yearly at scrutiny committee meetings from June 2025 onwards. The aim is to improve transparency by replacing the procedure of performance reports being submitted to the Cabinet.

Training

As already reported, at the start of the scrutiny workshops, training was held for members of the scrutiny committees on matters to be considered when prioritising which included:

THE PURPOSE OF SCRUTINY WELL-BEING OF FUTURE GENERATIONS ACT

STRATEGIC QUESTIONS

REACTIVE SCRUTINY

RECEIVE ASSURANCE AND/OR MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS

SMART RECOMMENDATIONS

PROACTIVE SCRUTINY

CONSIDER THE BEST METHOD OF SCRUTINY

IMPACT OF SCRUTINY

Training for prospective chairs and vice-chairs was held in May 2024. The training detailed the legal aspects, the role of chairs and practical issues in chairing committee meetings.

Reference was made to the standard items on committee agendas – apologies, declaration of personal interest, urgent matters, minutes (for accuracy only). The training elaborated on the procedure for making decisions including how to deal with an amendment to a proposal. It emphasised the need to ensure there is a quorum (at least a quarter of the committee members who have a vote in attendance) throughout the meeting for the meeting to continue.

It detailed what makes a good Chair:

- ❖ Prepare thoroughly
- ❖ Discuss the support of the vice-chair and relevant officers in advance
- ❖ Attend the committee room when a meeting is a multi-location meeting if possible
- ❖ Set the stage – welcome, present, explain to the public, stick to the agenda, be clear
- ❖ Act professionally

It was noted that the Vice-chair needs to be prepared to step in to chair a meeting at any time. And so, they need to prepare in the same way as the chair. It was suggested that they use their time as vice-chair to consider how they would respond and manage the meeting in each situation.

Looking ahead to 2025/26, the need to hold training for scrutiny members on scrutinising performance has been identified and this training will be provided in advance of the first committee meetings.
