

GWYNEDD COUNCIL PLANNING CHARTER

The Purpose

The purpose of this charter is to set out standards of service that the Planning Service will aim to provide for you our customers.

The Planning Service

The duties of the Planning Service mainly include providing general planning advice, pre-application advice, dealing with planning applications, applications for listed building consent, investigating alleged unauthorised developments and dealing with planning and enforcement appeals. The service also has a trees officer and there are other specialist teams, dealing with the built environment, waste and minerals planning, and planning policy, which are within the Environmental Service, which work closely with the Planning Service.

Our Aim

- To provide a friendly, courteous and prompt service
- To maintain high professional standards
- To make the best possible decisions to promote the economy and protect local communities and the environment
- To provide an efficient and effective service focussed on the needs of our customers

You Can Contacting Us By

- Visiting Siop Gwynedd in our offices at Pwllheli, Dolgellau and Caernarfon

Our Service Standards

General inquiries (e.g. do I need planning permission)

The service will:

- Provide clear guidance notes on all relevant aspects of the planning system on the Council's website
- Provide electronic communication options for our customers through the Council's website and provide one point of contact for postal communications
- Acknowledge electronic communications within 5 working days of receipt and letters within 5 working days of receipt
- Respond to telephone calls transferred from the Contact Centre within 3 working days of receipt
- Respond to electronic communications and letters with a full or interim reply within 15 working days of receipt

Pre-application advice

In accordance with the Guidance Note on Pre-application Advice, the Planning Service will provide pre-application advice and written formal information for a number of proposed developments. The purpose is to provide our customers with a better service, to improve the quality of applications and to reduce the time it takes to determine planning applications.

The advice will include:

- Clarity which policies/standards apply to the development
- Identify early on in the process whether there is a need for specialist input (e.g. listed buildings; trees; the landscape; noise; transport; contaminated land; ecology or archaeology)
- Help to submit an application that is complete, in electronic form and is to an acceptable standard, avoiding any delay during the registration/validation stage or avoiding any early refusals due to insufficient information
- Advice to prepare an application which, if full consideration is given to the advice provided, will speed up the process of determining an application
- Reduction in the time taken by professional consultants and can save costs as they prepare the proposals
- Advice if the principle of the development is unacceptable, thus saving the cost of applying

Processing applications

- Register valid planning applications within 5 working days of receipt
- Contact applicants within 5 working days if an application is incomplete and/or invalid, explaining (with reference to the Council's Protocol on Information submitted with an application) what is missing or how to correct any mistakes
- Within 24 hours, make copies of valid applications available on the "Track and Trace" facility on the Council's website
- Arrange for hard copy of the application and plans to be inspected through prior arrangement where access to "Track and Trace" is not possible or practical
- Aim to determine a minimum of 70% of all planning applications within 8 weeks although major applications may take longer
- Inform applicants and give reasons if an extension of the 8 week period is required

- Ensure that a site visit is made by the relevant case officer within 15 days of the registration of the application
- Ensure that all site visits and telephone discussions are recorded within the electronic planning database.
- Aim to decide a minimum of 80% of planning applications under delegated powers in accordance with the Council's Delegation Scheme (see Delegated Scheme on this website)

Publicity for planning applications

In addition to the statutory requirements relating to publicity we will:

- Maintain and improve the facility to view and respond to planning applications via the Council's 'Track & Trace' system on our website.
- Publicise a weekly list of registered and decided planning applications on the Council's website.
- Maximise opportunities to communicate / consult electronically

Planning Enforcement (Allegations of unauthorised development)

- Acknowledge enforcement related enquiries within 5 working days
- Investigate and conduct site visits on high priority case (as defined in the Gwynedd Planning Enforcement Policy) immediately or within 24 hours (This includes high priority cases transferred from the Contact Centre)
- Investigate enquiries and visit the site and provide an interim response to enquiries within 15 working days giving priority to higher priority cases (see Gwynedd Council Planning Enforcement Policy)
- If formal enforcement action is to be instigated, notify the enquirer within 5 working days of the decision and update as and when required thereafter
- Aim to resolve 75% of enforcement complaints within 12 weeks of receipt.
- Respect the wish of enquirers for their name and contact details to remain confidential

Building Conservation and Trees

- Ensure that planning officers seek the advice of the Buildings Conservation Officer and or Trees Officer and where required include them in meetings when giving general advice, providing pre-application advice, dealing with planning applications and in dealing with enforcement cases where relevant
- Ensure that the tree officer and building conservation officer are available through prior arrangement during office hours to provide specialist conservation and historic building design advice. Meetings can also be arranged with the Planning Officers and the Trees / Building Conservation Officers, at the discretion of the Planning Officer, through the Pre-application advice service

Planning Policy

- Maintain an up-to-date planning policy framework for the Gwynedd Council Local Planning Authority and Ynys Mon County Council areas
- Publicise emerging planning policies and proposals widely, including on the Council's website, giving opportunities for people to comment in accordance with the relevant planning regulations.

- Ensure that copies of the adopted Gwynedd Unitary Development Plan and related documents and any supplementary planning guidance available to view on the Council's website
- Ensure that Planning Policy Officers are available during office hours to provide advice and information on matters relating to planning policy. Prior arrangements should be made if you need to see a specific officer
- Engage with consultees and the public and carefully consider representations made on emerging planning policy documents and inform respondents how the Council will deal with their concerns in accordance with the relevant planning regulations..

Continuous improvement

- The Council welcomes comments about the service provided and sends customer care questionnaires with every planning and enforcement decision to applicants and agents. A system is also in place to contact applications/agents when they have received the decision asking for their opinion on the service received The responses are used to monitor its performance and to enable it to respond accordingly to improve the Planning Service
- The Council strives to improve the Service and reviews its targets and performance on an annual basis.

If you have any questions arising from these service targets, or want to comment on the targets or the service provided, please write to the Senior Planning Service Manager

Complaints about the service

We will deal with complaints about the service, in accordance with the Council's Complaints Procedure, a copy of which can be obtained on request or by accessing the Councils Website.
